

*The Peli Council
Committee on Sacrament Certification of the*

Nemenhah Band and Native American Traditional Organization (Oklevueha Native American Church of Sanpete)

Upon recommendation of the Elected Principle Medicine Chief and by virtue of the authority in him vested, certify herewith that

Tri Vortex Technology/ Tri-Vibes

Having made application for certification as Nemenhah Sacrament or Ceremony, along with an appropriate covenant and offering, qualifies in every way to be certified by the Band in full fellowship and is hereby designated:

Sacrament/Ceremony Provider

With all the rights and responsibilities appertaining thereto, including but not limited to manufacturing, producing, promoting, distributing, and so forth, of Nemenhah Certified Sacraments and Ceremonies, in accordance with the guidelines duly set forth by the Elected Principle Medicine Chief and the appropriate Councils of the Band.

Anthony R. Sanchez

Elected Principle Medicine Chief

Effective Date 2011

Governing Laws:

U.S. Constitution, NAFERA (Native American Free Exercise of Religion Act 1993, Religious Freedom Restoration Act 1993, United Nations Resolution on Indigenous Peoples, Nemenhah Constitution